DR. SNYDER'S CAR STOLEN

A message received from the Baltimore police by Detective Frederic M. Cornwell about 2 o'clock this morning wanted information of an automobile belonging to Dr. Frank Snyder, 622 6th street.

Called out of bed and asked if his automobile was missing, Dr. Snyder said he had parked his car in front of his home last night about 10 o'clock and presumed it was still there.

"It's gone," he said when he had looked out the window.

Baltimore police officials said three young men and twenty gallons of whisky were in the car when it was stopped on the outskirts of the city by a motor cycle policeman.

Detective Cornwell was told that the occupants of the car, who were arrested, registered as Irwin Wagner, 622 6th street; Samuel Pulaski, 44 E street, and George Gray, Hyattsville, Md.

Refreshments

The Volstead law is on the books; it's there for keeps, I think; and wise men seek the babbling brooks when they would have a drink. For wise men know we cannot choose the laws that we'll obey; the ordinance forbidding booze has come, and come to stay; an epoch dry as dust has dawned, a juiceless age is born, and we must journey to the pond to get our morning horn. Oh, yes, in alley or in slum we yet may stain our breath, and buy a flask of bottled rum that's labeled Sudden Death; but who's so thirsty he'd elect to drink such booze, gadooks? And who can keep his self-respect, and train with low-down crooks? The Volstead law is not a dream, it largely looms, like fate and we must seek the crystal stream when we would irrigate. Good citizens are earnest guys who bow to all the laws, though they may think some are unwise, and full of fatal flaws. They say, "To all the laws we'll yield, as blithely as we may; if they are punk they'll be repealed, and if they're good they'll stay; and he who'd flout them is a chump, he bores us with his yawns; and we shall journey to the pump to get our forty drops."

LIFE TIME FURNITURE

For that after-supper tiredness

"There's just one thing I really ever want to do after my supper—and that is throw myself in a big armchair to read the evening papers. Believe me, there's nothing like an armchair for real comfort."

There probably isn't one man in a hundred who doesn't wish for such a chair, and imagine himself sunk back in it with his papers, and the whole evening to himself.

But why imagine yourself in one of these chairs when the Lifetime Furniture Store has such a large stock to select from. And the prices? But why speak of that?
